

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to thank everyone that has reached out to me during this very difficult time. Your prayers, phone calls, meals, texts, emails, cards, flowers, etc. are a testament to how much Myra was loved and has greatly comforted me.

Myra loved volunteering at Saddleback.

She was involved in:

Storytellers – Myra would write articles for the back of the bulletin, coordinate the team of volunteers and teach classes to help others improve their writing skills.

Talk it Over – Myra led a group of people that wrote study questions after the weekly message for small groups to use to grow deeper in understanding.

HIV & Aids – Myra brought love and compassion to those in need.

Pastors Reseach Team – Myra helped research for sermons.

Womens ministry – Myra was a table leader for Thursday morning Bible study; helped with women's ministry, membership and baptism; she mentored women one-on-one in their daily struggles and their walk with Christ.

Archive Ministry – Myra worked on the History of the Women's Ministry for the archival project.

Small Groups – Myra led a small group in her house, an online small group and was a community leader helping others to lead their women.

Master Teacher Training Program – Myra taught Class 101, 201 and 301 at several Saddleback campuses.

She also helped with the transcription, communion and Good Summarian' Readers teams

Obituary

Myra Wells, age 64, died at her home in Mission Viejo, California, on Monday, May 27, 2019. The cause was a sudden heart attack while sleeping.

Born on September 3, 1954 in Chicago, IL, she lived in the Chicago suburbs before moving to southern California. Myra earned a MA in Int'l Marketing from Univ. of TX at Dallas, MBA in Int'l Business from Webster Univ., MFA in music from Northwestern and a BA from Univ. of IL - Urbana Champaign.

Survivors include her husband Richard, sister Paula (Jim) Balija and brother Martin (Theresa) Biernat.

Myra's outlook on life could be summed up by
For God loved everyone so much that He endured torment, ridicule and death that we would be able to have a relationship with Him - John 3:16 (paraphrase)

"You have never looked eyes with someone that doesn't matter to God" - Bill Hybels

Myra was passionate about mentoring individuals in their walk with Christ. Whether through her writings, small groups or individual one-on-one meetings, her desire was to help people reconcile relationships and grow in Christ's likeness. She especially had a heart for encouraging women to be all that God created them to be.
